Dear ,

As 2015 draws to a close, we hope there is time to reflect on successes in the past year and to seek out opportunities for 2016. We can help you and your organization plan for leadership development and growth in the coming year.

The Anderson Center has over 15 unique offerings scheduled for 2016. There are opportunities available for top executives and new managers alike, as well as several events to come together to network with other leaders.

We are currently recruiting for the 2016 Executive Forum, which is a high-level leadership development experience for owners, CEOs, and senior executives. The Forum integrates senior level topics of leadership, strategy, marketing, operations, and finance to help leaders grow their organizations. The cohort meets for three week-long sessions across the calendar year. Each leader also conducts a case study on their own organization, receiving valuable advice and counsel from peers in the cohort. Cohorts often continue to meet post-Forum for on-going learning, benchmarking, and networking.

Other offerings in the first half of 2016 include the Finance Forum, Mentoring Millennials, the Operations Forum, LEAD 2016, 7 Habits for Managers Forum, and the Leading Negotiations Forum.

The Anderson Center would be happy to assist you with planning leadership and management development opportunities for yourself or your team. We encourage you review the Center's Forum Offerings and use this Organizational Planning Sheet to plan for 2016.
